COURSE PROSPECTUS

WELCOME

Step onto a deeply fulfilling path as a
Meditation and Mindfulness Teacher

ACMM graduate Natalie with her meditation group

Visualize this...

The space is silent except for some gentle music and your voice...
You are leading a captivating and beautiful guided meditation.
You can feel the energy in the room; connected, peaceful.
You are leading your meditation class with your unique touch.
You provide an important and needed space for your participants to relax and let go.
Your meditation class is a place for reflection, relaxation, sharing, healing and support; a place where people come to connect with themselves and others.
They end the class feeling restored, supported and uplifted, and so do you!

KERRY
SLATER

"I am a life coach, meditation teacher, Reiki Master Teacher and psychic medium. All of these amazing tools come together when I work with women to assist them in obtaining peace, harmony, well-being and a sense of self awareness and self love in their lives.

I have 3 regular in-person classes and one online meditation class via a private Facebook Group that I run fortnightly."

"I specialise in helping people build their meditation practice, or at least introduce them to certain forms of meditation. This is usually the tool to help them with current issues or just to create a new healthy habit. I also offer breathwork sessions to clients and love weaving the two together in a session so that they can gain better clarity on trapped emotions but also have a way to integrate all the new information coming in."

TIRRELL
CHERRY

"I am the Director of Agile Mind, a business that I started in 2018, specialising in meditation and mindfulness programs for workplaces. I also offer individual mentoring.

I have worked with all sorts of organisations ranging from large ASX listed companies to local councils. Mostly this work is teaching people basic mindfulness and tools to stay balanced."

1 Certificate - Become a meditation teacher

The Certificate in Guiding and Teaching Meditation and Mindfulness is a comprehensive teaching qualification that enables you to register with IICT or Meditation Australia and gain insurance.

It consists of 8 core modules and supervised practice tasks. You will gain:

- a thorough understanding of meditation practices
- a comprehensive understanding of the history and science of meditation
- training in guiding meditations of all the main kinds of meditation
- guidance in constructing original meditation teaching programs.
- the ability to guide original meditations without a script.
- meditation specific facilitation skills

Complete the Certificate in as little as 4 months, or up to 15 months

2 Specialist/Advanced Certificate - Dive deeper into your passions

This is more than a teaching qualification. It includes the core training available in the Certificate, as well as deepening and customizing your studies with 3 or 6 elective subjects.

Complete Adv Cert (3 electives) in 6-18 months, or Specialist Adv Cert (6 electives) in 8-24 months.

3 Diploma - Elevate your facilitation skills

The Diploma is a continuation of the work completed in the Advanced Certificate in Guiding and Teaching Meditation with 3 electives.

In small supervision groups, you will receive close mentoring from Lisa Forde and peer support whilst you are out there running your groups and classes. Amazing support for your first year of teaching!

Build your confidence and learn new ways of teaching on an ACMM retreat. This professional and personal learning opportunity will allow you to nourish your body and soul, heal your heart and uplift your mind. Retreats offered both in person and online.

Start the Diploma once you complete the core assessment of the Adv Cert and finish your electives at the same time.

4 Masters Program - Become an industry leader (Interview Required)

The highest level of training offered at ACMM.

Attend a second retreat, receive Advanced One to One Mentoring with Lisa Forde or a Senior Coach, and undertake an original research project.

Your research project can become the basis of a unique and pioneering offering for your business. This is an incredible opportunity to contribute to the field of meditation and mindfulness in a way that only you can.

Become a registered and qualified meditation teacher

- Certificate - core training
- Advanced Certificate – core training + electives

Enjoy a world of meditation and mindfulness!

One to One Coaching

Be greeted by your coach with a one-to-one zoom call where you will get to know each other and make sure you are comfortable with accessing your study materials.

Get started on the first of 8 modules.

After each module is completed, you will meet up with your coach again for another coaching call.

Then you will be ready to progress to the next module.

Our coaches value the relationship that is built with you and seek to support and encourage you at every stage.

Community Support

As well as your private coaching experience, you will be able to access support from our wholehearted student community in a number of ways:

- Peer Connection Groups

A space for students to come together with fellow ACMM peers to connect, collaborate, explore and lean on each other as they navigate their own path as a meditation student and teacher.

- FREE Online Community Meditation Evenings

The ACMM Community gathers to meditate together, so you can experience the various techniques taught in the course.

You can also access past events and other meditation audios in our vast Meditation Audio Library.

- Private Facebook Group

There is a magical vibe at ACMM that is created by our values and intentions, teamed with our incredible like-hearted students. The Facebook group is a space where you can ask questions at any time. It's a compassionate and supportive sharing space and we really relish the generosity and acceptance in our community.

- Optional In person on online retreats

The ultimate ACMM community experience is available at our meditation retreats held in NSW and VIC.

Make lifelong connections and immerse yourself in the practices taught in the course

Skill Development

In this comprehensive and personalised training, you will learn how to:

- Guide and teach a range of meditation methods.
- Guide a spontaneous meditation of between 10 and 45 minutes.
- Make meditation recordings
- Use trauma sensitive teaching skills and adapt your guidance for the needs of your students
- Write a meditation course and assess student's progress
- Use advanced facilitation skills to optimise the student experience

And much more!

Certificate Course Content

Modules 1 - 3

Learn about the history of meditation, get to know the various meditation traditions and delve into what science has been able to tell us about the effects of meditation on the brain and our wellbeing.

You will get to understand how stress and relaxation work, explore breathing anatomy and how to support thoughts and emotions in meditation. You will also deepen your own daily practice.

In these first sessions you will be introduced to the main families of techniques, their philosophy and application: Relaxation meditation, Contemplative practices, Creative visualization, Moving meditation, Sound meditation and mantras, Breath work, Mindfulness Practices and much more.

Modules 4 - 6

In Sessions 4-6 we focus on the practical skills of teaching and guiding each technique one by one.

You will develop your skills at writing and guiding original guided meditations and focus on appropriate language, delivery, voice and how to teach, as well as delving into the unique features of each technique.

Modules 7- 8

Explore group facilitation skills, that are specific to teaching meditation. Learn how to support students with a range of issues that can arise when learning to meditate, supporting special needs and how to conduct group discussions, activities and refer students to other services. Create your own classes/program and explore various formats for course delivery, including how to gauge which methods are working best for your group.

After Module 8 you commence the Practical Facilitation stage. Upon completion you will become eligible for the Community Work Placement Program.

Competencies and Practise

Students need to complete tasks in each module before moving onto the next. All students need to be willing to commit to a regular (daily) meditation practise and keep a log book.

Tasks are practical and consist of watching videos, readings and listening to meditation audios, short answers, personal reflections, meditation immersions, writing and recording meditation scripts and running practice teaching sessions.

Meditation and the Chakras

You can purchase this as a stand alone elective and start today!

If you would like to use chakra work in your personal or group meditation work then this elective is for you. Take an extensive journey into the chakras and become confident at understanding and using them as a tool for meditation, self-awareness and personal development.

Journaling for Clarity

You can purchase this as a stand alone elective and start today!

Learn self-care tools to support your meditation practise.

Emotions and everyday problems can weigh on our mind and prevent us from meditating effectively. This program gives you the opportunity to try effective journaling techniques to help unload stressors and move into a more positive frame of mind.

ACMM graduate guiding a Women's Circle

Note that some electives have pre-requisites and require the purchase of an additional textbook.

Meditation for Parents and Children

In this elective, you will learn how to create meditations for children of all age groups; from infants to teenagers and every stage between.

At each stage, understand children's cognitive, emotional needs and conceptual abilities and the type of meditation that works best.

Mindfulness and Buddhist Psychology

You will be guided on a journey with the Mindfulness Masters and introduced to a variety of ways that Mindfulness can enhance your life.

In addition you will be taken on a practical and personal journey through the tenets of Buddhist psychology and begin to apply them in your own life and teaching.

Meditation to support pain, grief and dying

Go on a journey that explores our beliefs around death and how they shape the way we deal with it as a reality. Based on the work of Frank Ostaseski, Elizabeth Kubler-Ross, Jon Kabat-Zinn and Ian Gawler you will be encouraged to explore death, grief and pain and how pain may be supported with meditation.

This is a deep and insightful elective, and like all our electives, it will take you on a journey to explore anything triggered by these topics in order for us to be better placed to help others.

Bringing Mindfulness Home

You can purchase this as a stand alone elective and start today!

Bringing mindfulness home offers a beginners program to learn more about mindfulness and how it can support you in your daily life. This program offers step by step techniques and activities that support you in incorporating this ancient art into your life.

Spiritual Meditation

Bring another dimension to your meditation groups or workshops by introducing your clients to spiritual, holistic meditation.

This elective supports you in bringing the sacred back into your life and your meditation teaching.

Learn how to bring a deep level of connection and spirituality to your meditations free of any particular belief system.

You are not only learning the skills to guide and teach meditation but also turning inward and reconnecting to the truth of who you are. - Nicky

Deepening through Meditative Inquiry

Meditative Inquiry is an incredible practice for gaining insight into the physical world, as well as for deeper insight into, or recognition of, your essence or essential nature.

Explore life using various objective and subjective techniques including Self-Inquiry as made popular by Bhagavan Sri Ramana Maharshi, an Indian sage from the Hindu / Advaita tradition.

You will also investigate how to guide others in Self-Inquiry practices.

ACMM graduate Holly holding a corporate class

Corporate Meditation and Mindfulness

This elective thoroughly prepares you to deliver meditation and mindfulness programs in the workplace with:

- Ideas for various delivery formats
- How to foster connections
- Defining your target audience and marketing yourself
- How to win work
- Measuring outcomes and reporting
- Practical hints for teaching in the corporate sector
- Developing documentation
- Space to create your own program

"I have completed the elective with a sense of confidence that I am able to submit a proposal to a potential client and it will be well-received." - Danielle

Supporting Anxiety and Trauma with Presence

This elective explores the origins and function of anxiety and the connection between how the body and mind respond to fear.

You will be introduced to theoretical background information and personally experience a range of practices that support awareness and connection.

You will also learn some basic trauma sensitive principles and guidelines that you can integrate into your meditation and mindfulness teaching.

"I am holding my first workshop in a weeks time and I feel very prepared due to the wonderful content provided by this elective" - Peta

Meditation Workshops and Classes

Can you see yourself running corporate relaxation programs, themed workshops or retreats but not sure where to start?

In this elective you will be mentored to bring your project to fruition through a structured program of questions and practical activities. Bring your ideas - and let's help you get your project done.

Women's Circles

In this elective you will be supported in creating and holding your own unique women's meditation circle.

You will explore your own relationship with the feminine in your life and how this might inform the way you support women, as well as exploring techniques that help our feminine aspect thrive.

ACMM graduate Anila running a group

Yoga Nidra

Have you always wanted to guide a deeply relaxing and restorative Yoga Nidra practice? Would you love to learn more about the history, science, structure and how to's of Yoga Nidra?

Yoga Nidra is a beautiful practice to be able to offer your students, as a meditation class or group, in a workshop, or on retreat. It is also perfect for corporate groups, schools or other teaching opportunities. In this rich and practical elective, you will gain confidence and clarity in how to guide this ancient practice in short and longer forms.

Meditation for connecting with nature

This elective calls you into deep presence and reverence to your place on Earth, where you will learn to acknowledge and know yourself as part of nature, interconnected with all other beings. Drawing on several concepts and philosophies including sacred ecology, biophilia, animism, secular mindfulness, Shinrin-yoku (forest bathing) and reciprocity, 'Meditation for connecting with nature' will allow you to deepen your connection with Mother Earth, your place, and yourself.

Wild Soul with Asher Packman

(Short course purchased separately)

Turn inward to rediscover the wild and ancient soul hidden beneath the layers of your conditioned conscious. Utilising Jungian core concepts, archetypal wisdom and mythopoeics, this program will connect you to your innermost truth, reignite your imagination, and bring you into contact with your soul-rooted, ecological self — allowing your own unique genius to emerge.

Asher Packman,
Former President of Meditation Australia

FAQ's

Q. When does the course start?

You can begin whenever you are ready, we work alongside you and your schedule. Once you enrol we will set you up to chat with your coach so you can get started!

Q. What is the shortest/longest time I have to complete the course?

With the Certificate the shortest time we recommend is 4-5 months, and the longest time you have is 15 months. Course time extensions can be obtained at a nominal cost.

Q. Is this course accredited and will I be able to get professional insurance?

Our meditation teacher training courses enable automatic acceptance with the Meditation Association of Australia (MA) and the International Institute of Complementary Therapists (IICT). Upon completion of your certificate you can gain membership with these organisations and will be eligible for professional insurance.

Q. How do the payment plans work? Can I pay it out early if I am able to?

Once you know which course you want to enrol in, choose a payment plan option from the enrolment form that suits you and indicate this on the form. You are welcome to make changes or pay your payment plan out early anytime.

Q. How is my coach chosen for me?

On the enrolment form we ask you which times suit you for coaching, and allocate you to a coach who is available at those times. Where there are a few options, we look at your interests and reasons for doing the course and match you up with a coach who might best support your interests and goals.

Q. Are concession prices available?

Yes – Valid Concession Card holders are entitled to a 5% discount off Certificate/Adv Certificate payment plans only.

Q. What happens if I don't finish the course in time?

Extension options are available at an extra cost.

Q. How flexible is the course?

The course is conducted at your own pace with the structure of regular meetings with your coach.

ACMM Mentors

Tim James - SA

After managing a charitable organisation in Adelaide for several years, Tim now works solely as a meditation teacher in the corporate space, teaching in community groups through his business called Meditation Life. Tim sees his coaching role with ACMM as an ideal marriage of his passion for supporting people through his expertise as a life coach and meditation teacher.

Susie McPhie - NSW

Susie has worked in health as a nurse, midwife and maternal and child health clinical nurse specialist for many years. Having practised Yoga for the last 20 years, she moved into teaching yoga. Wanting to explore more deeply the field of meditation, she has completed her Post-Graduate Diploma with ACMM.

Jaine Alston - NSW / UK

Jaine runs her own business as a meditation teacher and healer in 'One Breath at a Time Meditation', working with meditation, Reiki healing, Isis Seichem, massage and aromatherapy, with a focus to astrology and holistic living. Jaine originally worked as a holistic therapist and healthcare assistant in the UK before studying to become a Registered Nurse and relocating to Australia.

Lauren Howe - QLD

Lauren is a meditation teacher, coach, embodiment practitioner and eco therapist who is currently completing her clinical training in somatic therapy. She runs her own online holistic business and has experience teaching community and corporate classes, running women's circles, retreats and 1:1 sessions. A big change from the law related government job she had for 10 years.
